Symphony in C names Paul Bryan to the Board of Directors

(Collingswood, NJ) Symphony in C and Music Director Stilian Kirov are pleased to announce the appointment of Paul Bryan to its Board of Directors.

Paul Bryan is the dean of faculty and students for the Curtis Institute of Music. He currently serves as director and conductor of Bravo Brass, conductor and music director of Philos Brass, and artistic advisor of the Symphony in C Youth Orchestra.

Mr. Bryan has conducted performances with the Chamber Orchestra of Philadelphia wind and brass ensembles, the Curtis Institute of Music Brass and Percussion Ensemble, Curtis 20/21 ensemble, and the Play On, Philly! Orchestra, among others. He has served as director of bands at St. Joseph's Preparatory School in Philadelphia and as a conductor at the New York Summer Music Festival in Oneonta, N.Y.

Mr. Bryan is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music and Temple University. He studied trombone with Glenn Dodson and Eric Carlson and conducting with David Hayes, Arthur Chodoroff, and Larry Wagner. He joined the Curtis staff in 1993, became a member of the faculty in 2009, and was appointed to his current position in 2013.

Symphony in C is one of three professional training orchestras in the United States preparing musicians and conductors who are on the cusp of world-class careers through concert, educational outreach and professional development programs. Performing at the Gordon Theater at Rutgers Camden Center for the Arts in Camden, New Jersey, Symphony in C serves over 90,000 people annually through its critically-acclaimed concert series, educational outreach programs and radio broadcasts. Symphony in C has been designated a Major Arts

Institution by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts and strives to continue making artistic, educational, and economic impact on a regional, national and global scale.

Programs are made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts, Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation, Lockheed Martin, Subaru of America, William G. Rohrer Charitable Foundation and New Jersey Cultural Trust. Symphony in C is a member of the South Jersey Cultural Alliance (SJCA).
