SYMPHONY IN C ANNOUNCES SUMMER SYMPHONY CAMP

July 15, 2014 (Collingswood, NJ) – Symphony in C and Music announce the tenth Symphony Summer Camp to be held from August 4th through the 16th, 8:30 am-12:30 pm. A culminating Summer Symphony Concert will showcase student accomplishments of on Saturday, August 16th at 2:00 pm in the Gordon Theater. The camp will take place in the Fine Arts Building on the Rutgers University Camden Campus.*

This is the eleventh year for the Symphony Summer Camp and it will be open to students studying string, woodwind, brass, and percussion instruments who will be entering grades 6 – 12 in Fall of 2014. Musicians will receive private lessons from Symphony in C's professional musicians and participate in side-by-side rehearsals with their teachers, and sectionals as the students prepare for their end-of-camp Grand Finale Performance. Students will be introduced musical performance, with daily lessons designed to enhance music skills, as well as teaching children melody, pitch and ear training-all essential skills for aspiring musicians. The generosity of Cooper Hospital Health Care and L-3 Communications, East, offers Symphony in C the ability to provide all campers with the music and book materials they will need for the camp, as well as a recording of the final concert.

Paul Bryan, an alumnus of Symphony in C's Professional Development Program, who has served as Director of *Summer Symphony Camp since it began in 2004, returns to direct the camp once again. Mr. Bryan is a faculty member at Temple University's Esther Boyer College of Music and the Artistic Coordinator and Conductor of Bravo Brass, the Philadelphia Youth Orchestra's brass ensemble program. Mr. Bryan also served previously as Director of Bands at St. Joseph's Preparatory School in Philadelphia and a faculty member at the Hartwick College Summer Music Festival & Institute in Oneonta, New York. Mr. Bryan is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music and Temple University.

This program made possible in part by funds from Cooper University Health Care, L-3 Communications, East, New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, The Geraldine R. Dodge Foundation, Horizon Foundation for New Jersey, and the William G. Rohrer Charitable Trust. Symphony in C is a member of the South Jersey Cultural Alliance (SJCA).
