Symphony in C Receives Support from Susquehanna Bank

CAMDEN, NJ (OCTOBER 6, 2011) – The nationally-recognized Symphony in C under the leadership of Music Director Rossen Milanov is pleased to announce they have received $5,000 from Susquehanna Bank.

“The support from Susquehanna Bank will enable Symphony in C to reach over 15,000 students annually through our award-winning Music Matters! education programs. Susquehanna Bank’s generosity will significantly impact our work with students from the City of Camden in our Classroom Symphony and Summer Camp programs,” said Krishna Thiagarajan, President of Symphony in C. “The donation will also support the development of our gifted musicians who are on the cusp of careers with great orchestras throughout the world.”

This donation will support Symphony in C’s Music Matters! multi-disciplinary education programs through its in-school Classroom Symphony and Orchestra Explorations programs, Concerts for Young People and Teens, and through its Super Symphony Summer Camp. The grant will further support the Professional Internship program training 78 aspiring musicians from throughout the Mid-Atlantic region.
